IMechE and SAGE's use of the work

You have assigned copyright in your article to IMechE. This helps us to ensure adequate protection against infringement of copyright protected material through breach of copyright or piracy anywhere in the world. It also ensures that requests by third parties to reprint or reproduce a contribution, or part of it in any format, are handled efficiently in accordance with our general policy which encourages dissemination of knowledge inside the framework of copyright.

Where practicable, you will be informed of requests to re-use your article. This does not apply to blanket arrangements covering the Journal as a whole or arrangements covering groups of journals such as arrangements made with the Copyright Licensing Agency in the UK, or Copyright Clearance Center in the USA. Please keep our mailing list up to date with your institutional or business address changes to help us to do this. Inadvertent failure to inform you will not constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

Your responsibilities as author: inclusion of other copyright material

SAGE is sympathetic to the needs of scholars to include other copyright material, and is happy to provide guidance on this. Responsibility for obtaining permission to use any other copyright material rests with you as the author of the Contribution.

If your Contribution includes material which is not your copyright, you are responsible for submitting with your manuscript the written permission from those who control copyright in that material to include it and reproduce it within your Contribution. In most cases this will be the publisher of the work. As the Journal is available in both print and electronic media and may be translated or archived, this permission needs to be for all media in all languages in perpetuity. You are responsible for the payment of any permission fees.

Fair Dealing information for your reference:

Fair Dealing provisions under UK copyright law and/or the Fair Use provisions under US law for use of material in review, and/or other International Copyright Laws allow for the limited use of third party copyright materials in particular circumstances, without the requirement to obtain permission as above.

The term 'fair dealing' is not defined in UK legislation itself but should be viewed from a qualitative as well as a quantitative perspective. There are no set rules which cover what is or is not fair dealing. For guidance:

- Fair dealing can only apply to material used for specific purposes including those of criticism and review and news reporting and incidental use.
- Permission should always be sought where reproduction could reasonably be construed as competing with the sale of the original source and/or where the amount of copying is substantial.
- Whether you are including material with permission, or on the basis that it falls under 'fair dealing' or 'fair use', you must include acknowledgement of the copyright holder and original publication of the material.

If you are in doubt, please ask for advice from SAGE or the journal editor.
